

Declining Race Old Sailors Verdict tsc sailing plan - tudor sailing club - stretch our more competitive sailors. weaknesses our membership is declining. not all club members actively sail. sailing activities are constrained by volunteers and we have been forced to make some reductions to the sailing programme 2014 versus 2013. new members are left to find their own way in the club with no mentoring or buddy system in place. a lot of our programme ... dickerson sailors return to their roots honoring the home ... - dickerson sailors return to their roots honoring the home of a bay classic ... in a fresh breeze, 44-year-old, 35 foot, wooden dickerson ketch, rainbow, sailed by john freal and doug sergeant, won the 7 th western shore round up held at the west river sailing club. captain freal received the honor of becoming the 2013 sheriff of the western shore plus receiving the trophy for the 35/36 class ... racing over the years at portland yacht club - the old adage that "whenever two sailboats are at close quarters, there is a race going on" occurred even back then. scheduled races began saturday afternoons in 1900. however, some interest had been dulled by the spanish american war and many owners had leased their boats which removed them from the pyc activities. the first one design class, a 31' starling burgess gaff rigged sloop ... the mdi community sailing center and the great harbor fleet - the mdi community sailing center and the great harbor fleet what if we could bring together mount desert island's youth 420 sailors? we can! meet the great harbor organizations: mdi community sailing center (mdicsc), northeast harbor ioca (uk) 5 year plan - optimist - race officials understand that the person organising is a volunteer. this is not a paid service enjoyment inclusivity have fun make some friends be healthy it's a family thing (parents can make friends too!) sail to win, but not at all costs trying hard is important too respect the fact that others might be different to you. development optimist sailors come in all shapes and sizes. not ... january 20, 2013 - for immediate release ready to do ... - regatta with old sails that have since been replaced. "we will approach it just like a match race because that is essentially what it is," fauth said. obviously, the starts are going to be very important and then it's about all the little details to generate boat speed." both owners have a gentlemen's agreement to not get into high-risk pre-starting maneuvers in hopes of getting off the line ... a bold and hardy race of men - project muse - "a bold and hardy race of men" schell, jennifer published by university of massachusetts press schell, jennifer. "a bold and hardy race of men": the lives and literature of american whalemens. from the quarterdeck - fbyc - from the quarterdeck jay buhl, commodore july, 2005 fbyc web site: ... capital plan, declining participation on the water, club modernization, communication, and signature regattas. as i read the article it so much reminded me of fishing bay yacht club, our involvement, projects underway, and so many of the initiatives many people are working on that make our club so great. we can certainly ... cod autobiography of capt. n. e. atwood. - 148 1